Daily Learning Story

Wednesday, 7th July 2021

This morning the children joined Miss Hannah on the mat to dance together while they sung an indigenous welcome song. The children moved faster and faster in time with the clapping sticks to the song. They also listened to the story“ Welcome To Country”. The children loved looking at the different art on each page and enjoyed looking for the different animals they could see.

After morning tea the children joined Miss Caitlin on the mat to read the book ‘Dunbi the Owl’. The children helped to identify all the colours on owl and later Miss Caitlin helped them to make their very own Dunbi the Owls.

NAIDOC week show

Today Miss Nicola visited the Sharks room to put on a show in celebration of NAIDOC Week.

Miss Nicola told the children that each dot in an Aboriginal painting signified a special story. She showed the children a map of Australia and instructed them to put sticker dots on the picture each time they visited a different part of the world.

After indigenous songs that included Taba Naba and a Welcome to Country, Carter and Lucas Ling had a go at playing digeridoos.

The group then visited Spain and Mexico, with Elora, Carter, Ryan, Kai-Li, Stella and Jasper all invited up to the stage to put on traditional costumes and help lead the dances.

The children all had so much fun dancing to the songs and learnt so much about celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures!

Art

As we read ‘Dunbi the Owl’ for group time, the children had a chance to recreate the owl themselves using the selected colours and a blank piece of paper. Different painting techniques like dabbing, brushing  and swirling were used. The children were left to interpret the bird as they saw it and they turned out beautiful!

Playdough

This morning the children were super excited to see Miss Talitha bring out playdough again. The first thing carter said was “its so much colder then yesterday”. Philip mentioned that he was making a water snake as he rolled his playdough into a long line. Evelyn enjoyed making lots of different sized balls.
