

SEAHORSE DAILY STORY

Miss Briohny came back from her holidays today and bought some bush tucker jam and honey for us to try. Once the little bottles were open Miss Briohny allowed the children to smell each one, before we gave them a try. Using some paddle pop sticks Miss Briohny put a small amount of each jam on the end of the sticks and allowed the children to taste them. They didn't really like the Fingerlime jam as it was sour, but enjoyed the taste of the Rosella and Lilli Pilli Bushtucker Jam. After tasting the jam we all had a taste of the Eucalyptus Honey, it was really nice. This activity allowed the children to explore the flavours of the Aboriginal Culture.

Playdough

This morning Miss Briohny and Miss Jade put out some playdough with the cookie cutters for the children to play with. Spencer, Yoonu and Hanson decided they were going to add a couple of the plastic cars to the playdough. Spencer used his car to flatten the playdough. Olivia and Nathaniel also extended their own play by adding one of the pots from home corner and some of the food. While working with the playdough the children used their fine motor skills to mould and manipulate the playdough into different shapes. This activity also provides the children with an outlet to express their creativity.

Children's choice

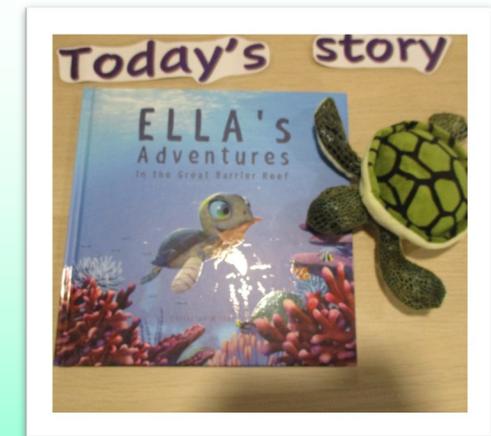

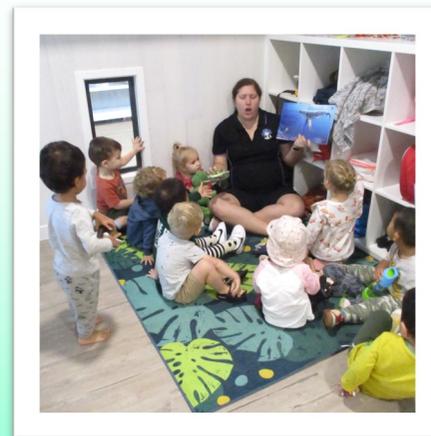

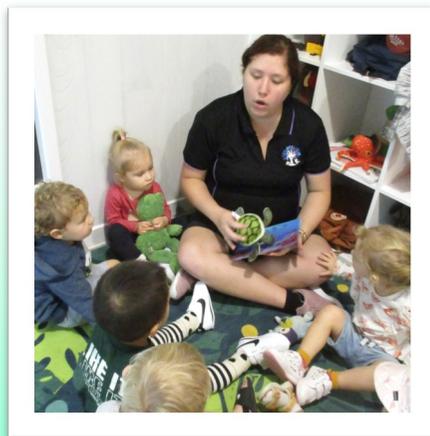

The children chose to participate in a variety of activities in the Seahorse room this morning. Azalea spent some time playing with the dinosaurs at the discovery table, while Olivia, Keaston and Spencer took some time out to look through the stories in the book area. The children also joined Miss Briohny to sing and dance to some different songs on the computer. We followed the actions to "I caught a little fish", "B-I-N-G-O", "Baa, Baa black sheep" and "Old McDonald". Samik, Marwin, Olivia and Nathaniel expressed their creativity while playing in home corner. Marwin and Samik also spent some time playing with the small cars and construction vehicles.

Group Time

The children and Miss Briohny sat on the back mat this morning to have our group time as we had a big group. Today's group time was all about our new Book Buddies that Miss Briohny brought it. We met Nipper the Crocodile, Ori the Octopus and Ella the Green Sea Turtle who we will add to our other book buddy Morris the Monkey. Once we met each of the book buddies Miss Briohny asked the children what story they would like to read today. The children selected 'Ella's Adventures in the Great Barrier Reef'. This story is based on true events of a young turtle being hurt by a boat and going to the turtle hospital. While at the hospital she learnt about the accidents that had happened to some of the other turtles, like a straw being stuck in ones noes and the other eating a plastic bag. Once our story was finished we talked about how we need to throw our rubbish in the bin to ensure we don't put other animals at risk.
