ANZAC DAY

To celebrate ANZAC Day, Maddie and Ashlyn played with rosemary and playdough. First we smelt the rosemary and then Ashlyn did a taste test. Her face showed she was a little unsure about it but had a big smile after. Maddie played with the rosemary on the mat rubbing it between her fingers.

We added the rosemary to the playdough and both Maddie and Ashlyn rolled the playdough with their hands and even tasted a little of it.

Our ANZAC DAY story today was the 'the story of ANZAC'

Outside play

Arden and Ashlyn joined the jellyfish in the morning playing in the big yard. Ashlyn and Arden explored the playground climbing up the stairs and going down the slide. They also explored the other equipment by crawling under and over. We also joined in on some dancing.

To further celebrate Earth Day yesterday, today we did some art and craft using natural resources that we found around the centre. The children seemed to enjoy touching and feeling the different things and glued them onto the brown paper.

As the weather was so nice and lovely today we had a picnic lunch.

Arden, Maddie and Ashlyn enjoyed the change up for lunch time and being able to eat outside .

ANZAC DAY

The traditional ANZAC Dawn Service starts at 4.28am and is held at the Shrine of Remembrance, ANZAC Square (Ann Street).

The Brisbane ANZAC day parade is commencing at 10am with the best vantage point being Adelaide Street.

Reflection of the day

The children enjoyed the having their lunch outside and something we will do more off throughout the year.

With only four children in the room today, the children enjoyed having more one on one.
