

STINGRAY DAILY STORY

We had a busy morning during outdoor play today. On the mat Yoonu and Hanson spent some time playing with the dinosaurs while Mikayla used the dinosaur bones and buried them in the sandpit. We also enjoyed outdoor play before lunch today. Spencer and Mikayla created their own game where they jumped from one mat to the next mat. They took turns jumping over the small gap and the larger gap. Spencer, Mikayla, Marwin and Sai climbed up onto the playground and took turns sliding down the different slides. In the younger yard this morning the children engaged in some dancing with Miss Zoey, they had so much fun dancing along to the different songs.

MOTHER'S DAY CRAFT

We continued our Mother's day craft this morning. As Marwin was away last week he worked on creating his Mother's Day card first before joining the other children in painting their Mother's day presents. Selecting either the blue, pink or purple paint they started painting their presents. Some of the children decided they were going to mix the different colours together over their present to see the design it made. Once all of our presents are finished being painted we will add some jewels for decoration. This activity encourages the children to strengthen their fine motor skills while also working with their hand-eye coordination skills.

DANCING

The children participated in their dancing lesson this morning. To begin the lesson they learnt how to clap and stamp to the beat. They also learnt how to make a cymbal sound with their mouths. Once they had learnt the different actions they were ready to join in with some songs. Following the teacher they were able to repeat the actions at different times during the songs. The children enjoyed being able to dance along to the different songs and showing off their dance moves. While dancing the children are using their gross motor skills while also using their balancing skills to keep up right while they dance. We will continue to have dancing/music lessons once a week. Tomorrow we can't wait for Yoga.

Mother's to their young match. Hanson and Violet joined Miss Taylor in playing the matching game. Looking over the little cards on the table they used their recognition skills to identify the animals with help from Miss Taylor before matching them to their mums.

The children engaged in a variety of activities today. Sai spent some time playing with the animals on the mat and accepted one of the animals shared to him by Nathaniel. Keaston enjoyed sitting with Miss Taylor, looking through the Nemo and Dory book, locating the different sea creatures. Marwin spent some time exploring the new home corner set up while Hanson looked over the different cultural items at the culture discovery table.

Nathaniel, Spencer and Xin Yan engaged with the Legos today. Using their construction and creativity skills they were able to connect the blocks together to form the designs they had in mind. While working with the blocks Spencer and Nathaniel shared them between each other.
