

STINGRAY DAILY STORY

Outdoor play started in the Jellyfish and Seahorse yard this morning with Nathaniel enjoying to ride around on the small bikes. Mikayla found one of the babies and used the basket to carry it in while Keaston enjoyed playing under the ribbons on the Zebra's ear. Once we moved to the big yard Miss Briohny set up the mat with the babies. Sitting in a group around the mat the children took turns with the babies. Mikayla set her baby up in the carrier, strapping her in before carrying her around while Yoonu, Spencer and Nathaniel dressed their babies and wrapped them in the blankets. Before morning tea we enjoyed play in the Seahorse and Jellyfish yard again. Spencer found the small pretend saw and went around the yard cutting things, mainly the rubbish bin. Mikayla located one of the trucks and sat on the foam climbing frames with it while Violet enjoyed riding the bikes around with Archie from the Jellyfish room.

OUTDOOR

MUSIC AND MOVEMENT

The children had another music and movement session today and they had a blast dancing to some funky songs! They learnt to clap to the beat, stomp to the beat and make sounds with the beat. They then listened to music while performing those actions and sounds and even froze when the song would stop. They did exceptionally well with following steps and had fun showing off their dance moves with their friends.

CONNECTORS

Miss Briohny set up the connectors on the mat this morning for the children to play with. Joining Miss Briohny on the mat Spencer, Yoonu, Mikayla, Nathaniel, Violet and Xin Yan used their creativity to work with the connectors. Selecting the different connectors from the mat they worked to connect the blocks together applying their problem solving skills in the form of trial and error. Once they had finished making their creations they enjoyed showing them off to Miss Briohny. Xin Yan did a great job sharing the connectors with the other children and allowed them to play with her creations. Spencer had a little bit of trouble working with the connectors and asked Miss Briohny to help him.

This activity encouraged the children to express their creativity and ideas through play. They were also able to strengthen their fine motor skills as they had to manipulate the blocks together. This activity also encouraged the children to use their sharing and turn taking skills, ensuring their was enough blocks for everyone.

FREE PLAY

During free play, Mikayla was playing in the home corner, found a hat and she put it on Miss Briohny and Miss Taylor heads, and also gave it to Spencer to wear. Mikayla likes to explore the foods in the toy kitchen.

Yoonu was pushing the pram with the toy babies inside around the room. He likes to stay active when he is playing.

Keaston was spotted flipping the sensory bottles. These sensory bottles have a calming effect and are enjoyable to mix around.

Violet and Xin Yang were happily sitting on the mat playing with some toys from our cupboard.
