Group time with Miss Taylah

We continued on with reading our book of the week "The Lion Inside" during our group time this morning, Weixuan, Amal, Isabella, Ethan and Harvey were fixated on the story, they sat down close to Miss Taylah and listened as she turned through each of the pages. Olivia quickly grabbed her own book from the book shelf to join in on the book reading. At first Aria was intrigued by the story book, but did lose interest half way through, as it is a pretty long story book. Aria followed on with Olivia and grabbed her own book from the shelf, quietly reading through it. Weixuan and Harvey pointed out the little mouse and big lion on each of the pages, Harvey even let out a little "Roah" when he seen the lion.

The children are starting to understand our morning group times more and more each day which is lovely to see them starting to learn their new daily routine.

Group time is allowing all of the children to come together in a group and share their interests together. Each of the educators in the room are taking turns on doing group time each day, this allows the children to connect and build stronger relationships with each of the educators.

We made the littlest, quietest, meekest mouse!

Miss Zoe organized our craft experience this morning, after reading this weeks story book "The Lion Inside" with Miss Taylah, Miss Zoe raced up stairs to gather the art supplies for today's experience. Once she was back from getting the art supplies, Miss Zoe day with each of the children individually and guided them through this craft. Once Amal had completed her art she pointed down at it and said "Mouse" so clever Amal, recognizing your craft from the book. Ariana was so excited to have her turn at craft, she sat down next to Miss Zoe and pointed at all the different art supplies Miss Zoe had on the table. Aria loved the feeling of the pink pip cleaners, she moved the fuzzy textured pip cleaners around in her hand before placing each of them down onto her paper. Harvey was also very eager to start his craft, he held the glue brush in his hand and softly brushed it across the paper before putting the eyes, ears and pip cleaners on. Olivia and Isabella weren't 100% sure about the glue as it was very sticky and getting on their fingers, but once they started placing down the ears, whiskers and eyes, they could see their little mouse coming together and were proud. Weixuan was super excited and very proud of his little mouse he had made by Miss Zoe's side.

Building with blocks

Olivia, Harvey and Ethan, started their fun and exciting morning off with block build with Miss Taylah. Harvey and Olivia started building up their towers softly, then quickly knocking them down, both Olivia and Harvey clapped as their towers fell to the ground. Ethan tipped over the basket of blocks to find which ones he wanted to use to start his tower, once he had built his little tower, he also knocked it down, letting out a small little giggle.
