

STINGRAY DAILY STORY

NAIDOC WEEK 2021

NAIDOC DOT PAINTING HANDPRINTS

To celebrate the beginning of NAIDOC WEEK and to continue with the Aboriginal culture the children made dot paintings. Miss Briohny traced their hands on to the paper first before they used small round sticks to dip into the paint. Once they had enough paint on the sticks they stamped them onto the paper. Working with concentration and determination the children tried to keep the dots inside their handprints. As NAIDOC celebrates both the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Cultures we used red, yellow, black, green and blue paint to create our designs. We used these colours due to them being the colours of the flags.

AUSSIE ANIMALS

As we continued to celebrate our Indigenous cultures and the Traditional owners of the land Miss Briohny set up the mirror table with some Australian Animals. Placing out the grass strip across the table, she set up the dingo, koala, kangaroo, wombat, platypus, crocodile, frill neck lizard, thorny devil, Tasmanian Devil and a cassowary. The children sat together around the table and used their recognition skills to identify the animals they were familiar with, Miss Taylor and Miss Briohny helped the children recognise the animals they hadn't seen before.

During the week we will talk about the Australian animals and the importance to the indigenous people.

CLAP STICKS

ABORIGINAL SYMBOLS

On the table Miss Briohny set up some Aboriginal designed coasters, a small boomerang and the clapsticks. Looking at the materials at the table the children selected the clapsticks. Spencer and Mikayla each had one of the clap sticks and worked together to clap them. Spencer also showed Miss Briohny how he could clap the sticks together. After a while Spencer and Nathaniel sat with Miss Taylor and they worked together to clap the clap sticks. After sharing the sticks Nathaniel enjoyed clapping the sticks together as he walked around the room.

Keaston explored his cultural identity this morning as he looked through the Aboriginal symbols flashcards. Picking up the cards from the table he took the time to investigate each card before stacking them together.

GROUP TIME

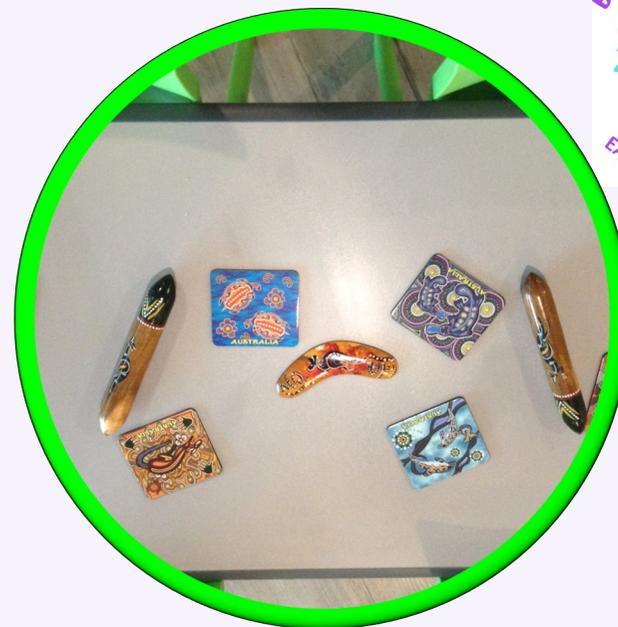

Before lunch the children joined Miss Briohny on the mat for group time. As we sat together the children listened to the first half of 'A is for Australian Animal' after we wake up this afternoon we will listen to the second half at afternoon tea. As we read the story we learnt about some of the Australian Animals, the children also showed us how they hopped like a kangaroo and stuck their tongue out like a blue tongue lizard. After our story the children and Miss Briohny learnt how to say hello in the Yuggera language. We say Wunya, we also learnt how to say Kangaroo—murri, sun—bigi and wind—buran. Over the rest of the week we will continue to learn more about the Yuggera language as we are on Yuggera land.
