Shaving cream painting.

As Eid Al-Adha continues Miss Taylah prepared a fun sensory experience that involves shaving cream. As a sheep is a big part of the Eid Al-Adha culture, we decided today we would focus on the sheep. Miss Taylah prepared some laminated sheep templates, paint brushes and shaving cream, Miss Taylah placed the shaving cream into a container and allowed the children to dip the brushes into the shaving cream, ready to paint their sheep's.

Miss Taylah decided to do shaving this morning instead of paint, as the shaving cream is a soft and fluffy texture and something a little different for the Jellyfish children.

Olivia was eager to participate she sat on Miss Jade and held her paint brush all ready to go, Miss Jade than sat her down and she continued with her sensory experience.

Ethan was curious what his friends were doing and wanted to join in he sat there and began to spread out the shaving foam on his sheep.

Isabella was straight into this sensory experience at first she was able to paint and spread out the foam like as if she was painting a picture, she even touched it and pointed to Miss Jade to show her the foam on her tiny finger.

Tiffany just had more fun with touch the foam and liked how it felt on her hands.

Harvey had a lot of fun placing the shaving foam all over his sheep he was even excited when he was able to touch and feel the shaving foam too.

Indoor Play

This morning was a bit cold for us so we stayed indoors we do hope the weather is a bit warmer this afternoon for all of us.

Harvey, Olivia and Evan wanted to play with the wooden train set. They helped Miss Jade and we did an extra long train track, Olivia had all the mini cars ready to slide along the track while Evan wanted to keep building the track along side her. Harvey on the other hand was busy setting up the tiny tree's.

Tiffany and Tabitha were wanting to play in our home corner, they were so good with sharing all the pretend food and wanted to make meals for everyone.

Evan had a great morning and wanted to play with all the balloons we had in our room, Miss Jade and Miss Zoe keep passing them to him and he would get so excited, Harvey liked the balloons as well especially when they would go high up to the ceiling.

Ethan was set on playing with our wooden "Safari Jungle Animals," he loved these and was able to make an enclosure out of the wooden blocks and had animals surrounding it.

Hannah and Isabella enjoy each others company so much today they had fun with the balloons and also wanted to join in and engage in our train set ON DISPLAY.

What a lovely morning we all had in our "Jellyfish Room."

Celebrating Hannah and Isabella's 2nd Birthday

What an exciting day it was today for our birthday twins Isabella and Hannah. Even though we are celebrating your birthday a day early cause we won't get to see you tomorrow. We wanted to make today special by listening to music and playing with heaps of balloons.

Your mothers brought in a very yummy cake to be shared around. All the children were so appreciative to eat a yummy cake for afternoon tea, and share a very special birthday with their fellow friends Hannah and Isabella. From us Jellyfish educators we wish Hannah and Isabella a very happy birthday for tomorrow!
