Balloon games

Everyone saw Miss Caitlin bring in the packet of balloons. They got so excited and asked if they could all have one. Miss Caitlin blew up a balloon for each child and they picked the colour they wanted. To help with any confusion of who's balloon is who's, Miss Caitlin wrote their name on it. Kai-Li watched as Miss Caitlin started to write her name and she instantly recognised it. "That's my name!!"

We played a game of keeping the balloons off the floor. We used our whole bodies to try and stop the balloon from reaching the floor! We had so much fun!!

Balloon splat art

B is for ... Balloons!

This activity was very messy so we're very glad Miss Caitlin decided to put art aprons on us.

Miss Caitlin filled balloons with paint and we used a pen to make them burst. We selected the colour balloon we wanted and guessed what colour we thought was going to be inside. Everyone guessed the exact same colour as the balloon to be safe.

We found out that the bigger the balloon the bigger the burst was. Not all the balloons went splat but the ones that did went everywhere. We watched as Miss Caitlin had to scrub the walls, the floor and even our faces!

Indoor basketball

One by one, we each lined up behind our friends and practiced shooting the ball into the hoop. While some throw the ball, others decided it would be easier to walk up to the net and place it in.

We then asked the children to say the name of their friend before passing the ball so everyone can start remembering their names.

Reflection of the day

We had an amazing day in the Dolphins room today.

We further explored the letter 'B' and learnt that words we already know begin with the letter 'B'.

We created some awesome artwork and we learnt that in order to do it again, we would need to make some adjustments.

We played some indoor games with balloons and basketballs and had a blast!
