Cat in the Hat

As our rooms theme for book week is Dr Seuss we decided to read the book 'The Cat in the Hat'. Although it was a longer book to what we are used to, the children seemed to really enjoy the book. After we finished reading the book Miss Caitlin asked what their favourite part of the book was. They all had a blank look on their faces so Miss Caitlin prompted them. When they didn't respond, Miss Caitlin asked if they enjoyed the dragons and they jumped for joy! I think I am going to have to go back and read the book

Once we finished our discussions, the children were very excited to help Miss Caitlin decorate the room with Dr. Seuss decorations.

Cloud Puff Painting

This morning during group time the children were asked if they looked at the sky this morning to which they all responded “yes”. The children were then asked what they saw in the sky and of course they all saw clouds. Since it was very cloudy this morning and the letter of the week is ‘C’, Miss Caitlin set up an awesome activity for the children. The children had white puffy paint and used cotton balls to dab the paint onto the paper creating a fluffy cloud effect.

Meika couldn't wait for her turn however when it was her turn she was hesitant to touch the cotton balls. After seeing a couple of her friends do it and watching Miss Talitha show her how to do it she confidently grabbed the cotton ball and dabbed it on the paper.

Table Activities

Cooper and Miss Veronica were looking through the coloured blocks to see what colours they could see. Shortly after Adaline joined them and put two different coloured blocks behind each other to see what colours she could see. Each time they looked through the blocks they said whichever colour they could see. On another table, we had puzzles placed out for the children to solve. Each puzzle required a range of different shapes which helped the children identify their shape names.

Reflection of the day

Today we continued learning about the letter 'C', we learnt that clouds and cat start with the letter 'C'.

We even got to decorated the room with Dr. Seuss decorations today as well.

Today we welcomed Miss Veronica to BTP as a float staff member and she spent her first day with us in the dolphins room.
